

Federal Appeals Court Rules in Favor of AMN Healthcare Against Competitor Aya

August 20, 2021

DALLAS & SAN DIEGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has ruled in favor of AMN Healthcare (NYSE: AMN) against Aya Healthcare's protracted legal case, stating categorically that Aya failed to prove any anticompetitive behavior by AMN under federal antitrust laws.

The federal Appeals Court affirms a similar ruling in June by a U.S. District judge. The Appeals Court ruled that the AMN provision prohibiting its contractors from soliciting AMN employees is a reasonable lawful restraint and rejected Aya's claim for damages.

"We are not surprised by the 9th Circuit's ruling in favor of AMN," said Susan Salka, President and CEO of AMN Healthcare. "We take great pride in our business practices that empower and expedite healthcare delivery, especially during this unprecedented time when healthcare organizations and their patients need us more than ever. We are grateful to our clients, partners, and team members that they did not allow this meritless lawsuit to distract them from our shared mission to serve our communities."
