"I'm very grateful for this honor and proud to be a team member of AMN Healthcare, where a shared vision of diversity, equality, and inclusion at all levels of the company is the foundation of our service," Rakowski stated. "Now is a crucial time when our responses to unprecedented events can become opportunities to build a more just and inclusive industry and community."

The Inclusive Leadership Award honors executives and innovative leaders in all industries for their passion to build effective systems by demonstrating "fairness, empathy, and integrity through inclusive leadership practices that embrace the differences of team members while boosting innovation and impacting bottom-line success." The National Diversity Council is a non-profit organization that brings together the private, public, and non-profit sectors to advance diversity and inclusion by transforming workplaces and communities into inclusive environments.

Rakowski serves as an advocate for diversity in leadership and the healthcare talent pool. She has been recognized as an industry spokesperson for developing innovative solutions to many of the challenges that hospitals, clinics, and other providers face in today's rapidly evolving healthcare landscape.
